This menu allows the user to alter the formula. The lines below the text field are used to insert mathematics into the formula. - Clear All Values From Field: Clears all data from the text field (field can be extended to include any calculation being done on this expression). - Incrementing or Decrementing Numbers By 1: Sets a number to 1 higher or 1 lower depending on which button is pressed. The number in the field is incremented or decremented accordingly. - Multiplying or Dividing Numbers: Sets a number to a number multiplied or divided by the number in the field. - Subtracting or Adding Numbers: Sets a number to a number subtracted or added from the number in the field. - To The 1st: Sets the number in the text field to the 1st number in the text field. - To The 2nd: Sets the number in the text field to the 2nd number in the text field. - To The 3rd: Sets the number in the text field to the 3rd number in the text field. - To The Nth: Sets the number in the text field to the Nth number in the text field. - Edit Expression: Changes the expression in the text field to the expression at the end of the text field. - Print Expression: Prints out the current expression in the text field. - Save Expression: Saves the current expression to the text file specified by the user. - Load Expression: Loads a previously saved expression from the text file specified by the user. - Fill Expression Field With Last Number: Uses the last number in the text field to fill the rest of the text field. - Scroll To Bottom: Displays the last equation in the text file. - Scroll To Top: Displays the first equation in the text file. - Goto Num1: Goto the number 1 from the current position in the text file. - Goto Num2: Goto the number 2 from the current position in the text file. - Goto Num3: Goto the number 3 from the current position in the text file. - Goto Num4: Goto the number 4 from the current position in the text file. - Goto Num5: Goto the number 5 from the current position in the text file. - Goto Num6: Goto the number 6 from the current position in the text file. - 77a5ca646e
